The Uniting Church in Australia
180 Palmerston Street Carlton

The Rev Dr Gondarra OAM
 Memorial Service

A state memorial will be held this week for Rev Dr Gondarra OAM, senior Yolŋu lawman, pioneering Aboriginal leader and Uniting Church minister, who died in June. With strong involvement from Uniting Church members, the service took place on Thursday 29 August at Nungalingya College in Darwin and was live streamed. You can watch it by clicking here

Season of Creation

This Sunday begins the Season of Creation! Through the month of September, Christians across the world will share in prayer, reflection and action on our call to care for the earth - our common home and the beloved creation of God. President Rev Charissa Suli writes in the Assembly's

2024 Season of Creation resource: "As President, I have emphasised the theme Threads of Love, Weaving Christ's love across cultures and boundaries. This theme is powerfully connected to the Season of Creation, as our care for the Earth transcends all human divisions."

"Just as we are called to weave threads of love in our communities, we are equally called to weave these threads into our relationship with creation, recognising that every act of care for the environment is an act of love for our global neighbours and future generations."

The Assembly has been gathering Season of Creation resources here. This hub now includes a new video filmed just this week in Fiji, one of the most vulnerable nations on earth to the impacts of climate change.

In the video President Rev Charissa Suli and Frances Mamoumou, Programmes Manager with the Pacific Conference of Churches, urge Christians to take part in the Season of Creation and "amplify the good news we have to tell." Watch by clicking here

We will be observing the Season of Creation here at CAN

Simon Normand will be the guest speaker at worship at CAN on September 22

Simon Normand is a sculptor, printmaker, painter, photographer, author and environmentalist. He has lived and worked with elders in southern Arnhem Land for over 30 years and has worked with Marra, Alawa, Yanyuwa, Warndarrang, Nunggubuyu, Waagilak and other elders to paint maps which show local cultural knowledge and stories for Country. His on-going cultural mapping projects in collaboration with the Ngukurr community on the Roper River document a long time connection with the landscape of the Northern Territory and the first peoples who still intimately hold on to one of the most remote and unknown parts of Australia.

The CAN congregation will again this year make up a table of eight people for the IHH Trivia Night. We have established a well earned reputation for coming last and this year we are hoping to put in an inspired effort and finish perhaps as high as second last. Keep an eye out in the next week as to how to purchase your ticket but for now put your name down on the list on the Welcoming Table at the front of the church to indicate your interest.

A Word From the CCS Exec Officer

“A few of our Homework Club families were lucky enough to get free tickets to the recent Brisbane v Collingwood AFL match at the MCG through Yirgalem’s connection with the AFL. Yirgalem attended with them and they all had a wonderful time. Yirgalem had this to say “... it was great to see the kids having so much fun cheering, shouting and enjoying them game. Some were cheering for Brisbane, and others for Collingwood. Eight families and 20 children attended. It was nice to see a couple of dads come along with their kids. For most families, it was their first time seeing a live footy match and visiting the MCG. After the game we also enjoyed the walk from the MCG to Flinders Street Station.”

A fabulous unique opportunity for our Homework Club families to soak up some classic Melbourne culture and have a lot of fun together as a family.”

(8th in a series of weekly tips for home use)

8. Alternatives to single-use plastic:

- ✓ Take your own re-usable bags to supermarket: brown paper or cotton
- ✓ Line your bins with newspaper. You may not buy a newspaper daily these days: but look for freebies in cafés, train stations, or neighbour’s discards
- ✓ Use existing household packaging: some items come in plastic packaging - put waste directly into these or other disposable bags you already own. To make sure they don’t end up in the belly of a turtle, re-use them until they’re on their last legs – then take them to a plastic recycling depot
- ✓ Use silicone food or steamer bags to replace plastic storage bags – can be safely stored, frozen, microwaved or even put in boiling water
- ✓ Beeswax food wrap can replace plastic cling-wrap; it’s made from materials including cotton, sustainably harvested beeswax & tree resin; can be washed, composted & (most importantly) reused
