Baptism and Visit of Ubuntu Choir at CAN This Sunday

We are thrilled to be able to baptise Jason Ijaz this coming Sunday, May 11 during morning worship. Jason has been our most regular attender over the past 3 months and what a wonderful story he has to tell. Jason became a Christian while in Sth Africa and since coming to Australia has made Church of All Nations his spiritual home.

And to make it an especially exciting morning we have a visit from the Ubuntu African Youth choir who will be singing some songs during the worship service.

The choir support children projects back in their home countries and we will be taking up a special extra offering to assist them with their fund raising. So come along and make a donation if you are able!

The Ubuntu choir is holding a workshop in our church on Monday May 12 and you can access tickets by clicking here

Marjorie Bowe 95 years on 4th May 2025!

Marj's special birthday last Sunday gives opportunity to acknowledge once again how blessed this Congregation has been by the family presentation in memory of Marj's husband, Don.

The Bible in its honoured place enriches our worship, and reminds us of the quiet, faithful encourager Don was, and Marj remains, as members with CAN.

Studies with Mark the Evangelist

Our second quarter 2025 study groups will use Miroslav Volf's Public Faith: How Followers of Christ Should Serve the Common Good.

FROM THE PUBLISHER

Debates are raging today about the role of religions in public life. As the world becomes increasingly interconnected, various religions come to inhabit the same space. Covering such timely issues as witness in a multifaith society and political engagement in a pluralistic world, this book highlights things Christians can do to serve the world.

MtE's study groups seek to be ecumenical in participation, with people from MtE, Parkville's St Carthages, Carlton's Church of All Nations and Kew Uniting Church often being among those participating.

At least two online (Zoom) groups are planned on Wednesday evenings (7.45pm) and Friday afternoons (1.30PM), for seven-eight weeks (one week per chapter). These studies will commence on Wed May 14 and Friday May 16, and run for 7-8 weeks.

Participants should get their own copies of the book. Amazon will be the quickest, but it is also available at other places more cheaply if you get early.

Church Dinner Coming Up

It came out last year but is definitely worth a read.
